

2023 HOSPITALITY OFFER

HAUT-BAILLY
HOSPITALITY

At the doorstep of Bordeaux, our estates invite you to leave the city for a moment of serenity in the vineyard.

Chateau Haut-Bailly, Graves Classified Growth, situated atop a hillside that has been home to vineyards for over four centuries, welcomes guests year-round for private visits, hand crafted meals and customised receptions.

Chateau Le Pape, set in a 9-hectare vineyard half-a-mile away from Haut-Bailly, is a haven of peace, a relaxing retreat for wine-lovers.

In this unique setting, a place of sharing and passion, hospitality is a tradition. Offering a wealth of experiences, vintages and tastings throughout the four seasons, the team at Haut-Bailly and Le Pape invite you to discover the wines, the history and the character of these two great Chateaux.

Meet the men and women behind the label - and discover their passion and the savoir-faire that go into making a Grand Cru.

The Chateau & its Terrace

The Chateau was built in 1872. The reception rooms illustrate the refinement and elegance of the French « art de vivre ».

The Chateau

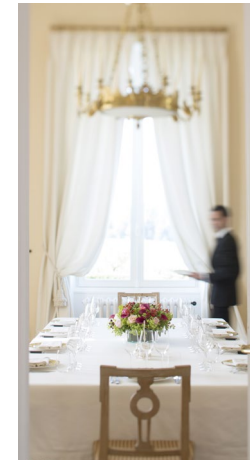

The large dining room welcomes groups of 7 to 15 for Table Privée functions. The small dining room is reserved for weekday lunches of 4 to 6 guests.

During the fall and winter months guests can enjoy the warmth of the fireplace in the salon while enjoying an aperitif and completing their meal with coffee and tea.

The Terrace

Located behind the Chateau and westward facing, the terrace overlooks the property's hundred-year-old vines. The perfect setting to enjoy spectacular summer sunsets.

The terrace easily adapts to various formats and allows guests to enjoy a number of activities on the Chateau's lawn...

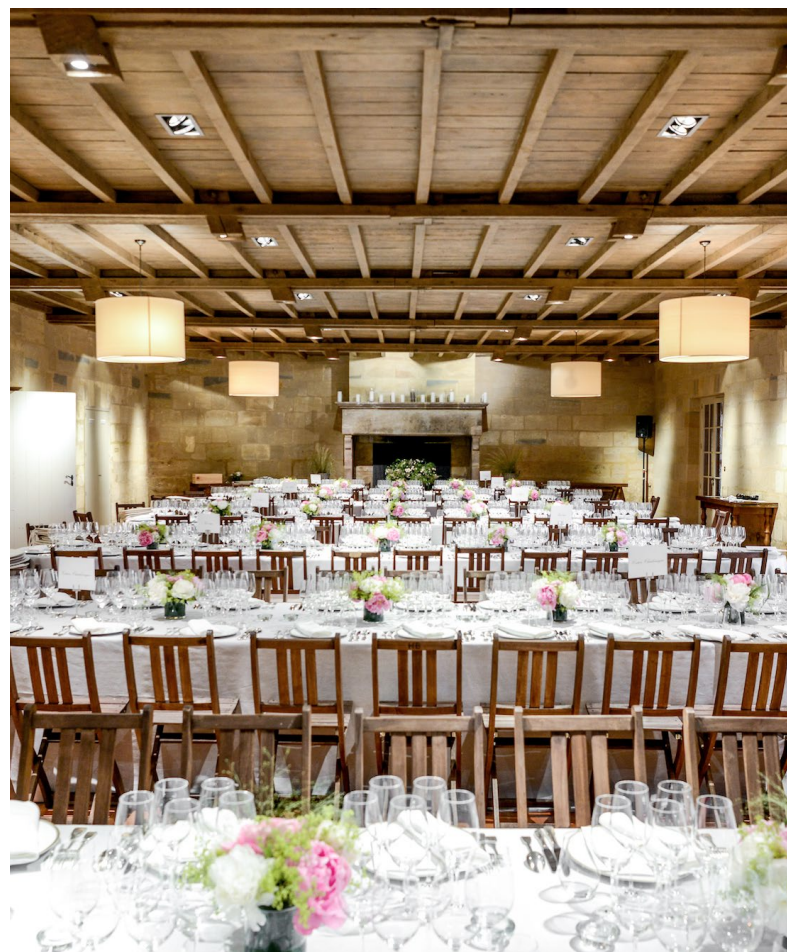

SETTINGS

The Reception Hall

The reception hall - a former barrel room - opens onto the Chateau's courtyard and the iconic sculpture of Bernar Venet.

Offering a space of 200 m² (2,150 sq ft), the hall welcomes up to 130 seated guests with round or long tables. The offer includes our wooden chairs, table settings, individual menus and floral decoration.

SETTINGS

The Conference Room

A well-lit environment offering comfort and discretion.

60 in theatre

25 in U shape

The Cellar

Unveiled in the autumn of 2020, Chateau Haut-Bailly is very proud to welcome visitors in its spectacular cellar, a place where architecture and nature come together. Integrating seamlessly into the landscape, this creation was designed by the architect Daniel Romeo and houses our production, ageing and storage cellars. From the garden that covers the dome, visitors can enjoy incredible views of our vineyards.

OFFERS

Visits & Tastings

From the vineyard through the vat room to our barrel cellars, visits at the property offer guests insight into the techniques and methods that go into making the wines of Haut-Bailly, a property dedicated to producing exceptional red wines.
